

*Another
Successful
Case
Study
Made Possible by*

Uncovering Ritter Implants When Partially Covered With Bone

By Dr. Ed Shapiro

Case Notes

Here is a case we uncovered this morning. Wanted to tissue punch since had good keratinized tissue but when probing could not feel all of implant. Suspected some bone covering implants. Here is a technique to reduce the bone without damaging the top of implant to allow seating of components without leaving a gap.

